

Dear students

Good Morning

Heartiest congratulations on your passing the examination. Now you have graduated to the next grade and you have to study harder. Unexpected holidays have been declared by the Govt to keep you safe at home. You must utilize this time fruitfully. Stay away from excessive use of mobiles and social media. It is pernicious.

Study good books, watch English news channels, increase your vocabulary and GK. You must respect your parents, elders and learn good manners. Your teachers will reach out to you through snap homework. Please do the tasks assigned .It will prepare you for the next class. You must avoid the loss of studies. Please keep in touch with school website, snap homework etc to get the latest. After this break, you must come back refurbished with a renewed vigour and zeal. Stay safe and secure. Must take precautionary measures.

Stay happy healthy, safe and secure under watchful eyes of your parents!
